Stock for British Columbia.

Mr Austin shipped, on Saturday last, to Prince George, a car of 2 and 3 yr. old steers. This was a choice, hand-picked and hand-fed bunch, and fetched a good price in the B.C. market. Mr Austin accompanied the shipment to its destination, and will make a short stay there, studying the market as to its requirements.

It is possible that, on his return, he will start picking up, in this district, some choice young breeding stuff, enough to make up several carloads, as there appears to be a demand for this class of stock in the newer parts of the adjoining province.

Calendar

Nov. 16—Mrs Martin Ulmer's big Sale.
Nov. 18—Dance in Duchoke's Hall, Stony Plain.
Nov. 19—Turkey Shoot, 1 p.m., Carmichael's Farm.

With a threatened loss of the Edmonton market for their product, owing to the irregular train service, the local milk producers are trying to arrange a truck service to deliver their wares to the distributors in the City.

Another returned man has become fed up with the farming game. Mr Aldridge at Holborn, who took up farming under the Soldier Settlement Board, is holding a sale of stock and machinery to day.

Mr and Mrs C E Clark were waited on, Friday evening last, by the pupils of the senior room at the local school, and presented with a silver tea service.

The birthday party given to Miss Suzanne Miller, on the 13th, was a delightful affair. A large party of her young friends met at her home, and enjoyed themselves immensely.

The weather being so good, and thrashing over exceptionally early this season, a larger number of farmers than previously known have taken out licenses, and are out in the woods after big game. All the local license vendors were cleared out last week.

The Charivari to the Newly-Weds who took up their residence on First street last week, was a pronounced success, the wireless messengers which had been sent around during the day bringing in a big crowd, and the throng of happy villagers included a big sprinkling of the fair sex. The music kept going till the "Purlooner" gave the Captain the handsome dancour of ten bucks.

Mr R E Wood paid 75c for hogs on Wednesday.

The Gillespie Special on the Canadian Northern was out on Tuesday.

Canada's "Unknown Soldier"

Proud of the wonderful endurance, bravery and achievements of their soldiers, and rejoicing in the great victory of righteousness and liberty which they, by their heroic self-sacrifice, won for the world, the people of all the Allied countries in the Great War were anxious, not merely to do honor to their glorious dead, but to erect Memorials which would for all time create a lasting impression on the minds of future generations and remain a permanent influence, a national tradition of the highest patriotism.

Many were the suggestions advanced as to the form of such a National Memorial, and noble in conception as many of these suggestions were, the one conceived and carried out by the British Government of bringing the mortal remains of one of the many thousands of unidentified British soldiers home to England and interring the body with all the solemn grandeur and impressive services usually reserved for sovereigns and great statesmen in the historic Westminster Abbey, was admittedly the finest.

Here lies Britain's "Unknown Soldier" surrounded by kings and queens, the Empire's greatest statesmen, admirals and generals, authors, poets and painters, and of all the shrines to be visited with reverence and awe throughout the centuries to come, none will command greater attention and respect than this tomb of an "Unknown Soldier" who gave his life in the Great War in order that liberty should not perish in the world, and that millions as yet unborn should not be called upon to pass through the horrors and sufferings of war.

This "Unknown Soldier" rests in peace in Westminster Abbey, and at his tomb flowers are laid and reverence given, as the representative of all the hundreds of thousands of British soldiers, the privates in the ranks, through whose steadfastness and self-sacrifice the Empire lives today and its citizens enjoy the blessings of freedom and personal liberty. Britain's "Unknown Soldier" is representative of that spirit which built the Empire and made it what it is today. But he is representative of something even greater, finer and nobler, namely, that which is the expression of the greatest of all love, the laying down of one's life for another.

No universal has the acceptance been that the British conception of paying honor and tribute to an "Unknown Soldier" constitutes the finest of all Memorials, that it has been followed in France, Italy and the United States. It has now been suggested that Canada should do likewise, and that the remains of some one of the many Canadian soldiers lying unidentified in graves in France and Flanders should be brought to Canada in all honor on a Canadian warship and buried with fitting ceremonies, and in a fitting tomb, in the capital city of the Dominion.

There should be no hesitation in acting upon the suggestion. In no part of the world did the manhood of any country respond more quickly and splendidly to the call to service than in Canada. The youth of this Dominion did not stop to count the cost, but willingly offered their life in defence of home and country and for the maintenance of national honor and the continuance of human liberty. Canada gave over 600,000 soldiers to the armies of the Empire, and one out of every ten rests in a grave across the seas. We cannot bring them all back, but as Lieutenant-Governor Newlands of Saskatchewan says in endorsing the suggestion, we can, and should, bring a representative.

Canadians from coast to coast desire to pay all tribute to the memory of their heroic dead. That tribute should be paid, not only by the present generation, but by Canadians throughout the centuries to come. In the Great War Canada found a national consciousness it had not previously possessed. This Dominion is bigger and better because of the trials through which its people passed and the sacrifices its soldiers made. In year to come the period of the Great War will be recognized as the turning point in Canadian history, and the deeds of valor of Canada's soldiers as the light which spread a new illumination over the pages of our history and inspired a new enthusiasm and gave birth to a truly national spirit in Canada.

Generations yet unborn will recognize these truths to a far greater degree than we do today. Standing at the tomb of Canada's "Unknown Soldier" in Canada's capital city, future Canadians will pay homage to the sturdy sons of the Dominion who in the years of the Great War proved themselves worthy of their country and their race.

Everything that can be done to keep alive and intensify the pride of Canadians in their country and in the achievements of their fellow citizens should be done in the interests of Canada. Everything that can be done to show lasting honor to Canada's heroic soldiers will, even so, be done in comparison to what those soldiers did for Canada and the honor they brought to this country.

Canada should follow in the footsteps of Great Britain, France, Italy and the United States by preparing a magnificent national Memorial to her soldiers in the tomb of an "Unknown Canadian Soldier" at Ottawa.

GLAD HE TRIED THE TONIC TREATMENT

Through Its Use Strength and Vigor Was Restored

To be tired after exertion is natural. Rest and food restore the body to normal after fatigue. But to be tired all the time is a symptom of an anemic condition that will not be cured by rest and food. Such an anemic condition is so gradual in its approach and generally so lacking in pain that it is often difficult to persuade the sufferer to do anything for it. But it is not a condition that corrects itself. The blood is not enriched the trouble will increase. The nerves will be unsteady and the digestive system will follow. Digestive disturbances often result from thin blood, sleep is restless and a general breakdown may occur.

Mr. Wilton Johnson, Nineveh, N.S., says: "A few years ago my system was in a badly rundown condition. My nerves seemed always on edge, and I found myself so weak that I could hardly do any work. I suffered from headaches and from pains in the back and under the shoulders and was often so sleepless at night that when morning came I felt as tired as when I went to bed. I was taking medicine all the time, but it was doing me no good. Then I read the testimonial of a man whose condition had been similar to mine, and who strongly recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I decided to give this medicine a fair trial, and when I had taken six boxes I felt much better. I continued taking the pills until I had taken six more boxes, and I can only say I am glad I did so, as I am now enjoying the best of health and I advise all men who feel run down to give these pills a good trial." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be obtained from any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"YOUR TEETH"

HEAD INFECTION

By RHA PROCTOR McGEHEE, D.D.S., M.D., Editor of "Oral Hygiene"

The great majority of bodily infections are due to abscesses in some part of the head, usually in the mouth, throat, nose or in the little cavities that are located in a chain from the base of the nose backward to the under surface of the skull.

These cavities are called sinuses. Whenever there is an abscess that causes absorption of the poisonous material into the blood stream, it is called a focus—a focus of infection.

The reason so much attention is paid to mouth infections is not because they are worse than any other infections, but because there are so many opportunities for infection in the mouth.

There are twenty temporary teeth which, in the normal course of life, are followed by thirty-two permanent teeth. Consequently, every one of us has the possibility of fifty-two sources of infection in the mouth alone, unless the teeth, both temporary and permanent, are properly cared for.

Every infection shortens life either very slightly or very considerably. In order to keep a clean blood stream, points of infection must be removed, but how much better it is, to avoid how much more sensible it is, to avoid these infections.

So far as the mouth is concerned, infection can almost always be avoided by proper care, in time.

The best time to begin preserving your health for the future is now. Just think of the wonderful opportunities ahead of us in this country. Only those who have health and energy can have the success of which they are capable. Pus is the enemy of success.

Well Worth Trying. Sufferers from Asthma who have tried many forms of treatment without beneficial results should not succumb to despair. They should at once procure a package of the genuine Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. The remarkable record established by this standard remedy is a convincing proof of its extraordinary merit in the treatment of this agonizing ailment. If you are one of Asthma's many victims try Dr. J. D. Kellogg's without delay.

The Sunny Side
A man once planted two rose trees, one on either side of his house. The trees were growing strong and healthy, but after a time the one grew and prospered, the other withered and died. The Farm's Good Showing.

The following article has been handed in for publication:

On the local Demonstration Farm the Holstein cows in the matter of milk production are "going over the top." Camille Aberker Korn-dyke has produced 5000 lbs. milk, 2000 qts. in less than two months. In one day she gave 105 lbs (42 quarts) and in the month of October produced 2820 lbs. (1128 qts.) milk containing 112³/₄ pounds butter.

Vronk Mercedes has produced 16000 lbs milk (6400 qts) in seven months.

Hengerveld Pearl Nephele 5th, a 2 year old heifer, has produced 16800 lbs milk (6,720 qts.) in 9³/₄ months.

These achievements are due largely to the untiring efforts of Mr E Young, the herdsman, and his willing assistant, And Irvine.

The pigs receive their share of attention and on the 22nd some fine specimens will be put into the hamper.

Mr Perrot, the horseman, is going after the horses. Some of them range in weight from 1700 to a ton. Parties wishing good heavy work horses will have a chance to buy them Nov. 22.

[Readers will note that in records of local dairy cattle previously published in The Sun these were certified to by Mr Wm Rourke, of the Dairy Commissioner's Dept. Such certification appears to be lacking in the alleged records published in this column.—EDITOR.]

The Farmer-Liberal Meeting.

The joint election meeting of the Liberal and Farmer parties was held in Stony Plain on Friday evening last, with Mr J Miller, General Merchant, in the chair.

With him on the platform were the Hon. Frank Oliver, Moody Washburn, M. L. A., Mr McLachlan and Mr Finmore.

The first speaker up was Mr McLachlan of Edmonton, for the Liberals. The speaker confined himself to the lines usual to these occasions, giving a dissertation on Liberal principles in a fairly able manner.

He was followed by Mr Finmore, Secretary of the U. F. Political Association. Mr Finmore made quotations from the writings and speeches of politicians who have been prominent in Canadian politics at different times, showing the lack of consistency between promise and performance on the tariff question—the one big thing farmers are interested in at the present time. Among the authorities quoted were Sir Clifford Sifton and Professor Goldwin Smith. Mr Finmore appeared to have the bigger grievance against the Liberals when the latter were in power at Ottawa, in not lowering the tariff to the requirements of the grain producers of the West. The speaker coupled the name of Mr Oliver with the party which he accused of these delinquencies. Mr Finmore, in closing, urged farmers to pass up the old parties and support Mr Kennedy, U. F. candidate in the West Edmonton Constituency.

Hon Frank Oliver then took the platform, and gave a brief outline of his program for the remedy of the present condition of things, as viewed from the farmers' standpoint.

In dealing with the excerpts read by Mr Finmore from speeches of Sir Clifford Sifton, Mr Oliver was able to show that this gentleman was recalcant to the Liberal principles which he had at one time espoused, and was at the present time owner of a prominent Winnipeg newspaper which was backing Mr Cramer's party at the present election.

Among other questions, Mr

By-Elections Postponed.

The Provincial by-elections will now be deferred until after the Federal elections, it having been found impossible to get the seats arranged in time for the date first expected.

The necessity of thus delaying the seven local contests has arisen over the difficulty in finding a constituency for Premier Greenfield. It was thought that the resignation of D M Kennedy in Peace River U.F.A. constitution requires its Member to be a resident has developed as an obstacle to Mr Greenfield's candidature there.

It is now expected that Peace River will call another convention for the purpose of amending its constitution so that a non-resident may represent it, thus clearing the difficulty standing against the Premier's running in that riding.

Oliver dealt with the charges alleged against the U. G. G., and claimed these had never been denied. On the statement being made, the speaker was corrected by Mr Finmore, who claimed that a denial had been made of the charges, on behalf of the U. G. G.

Mr Oliver calmly asked the interrupter if he had the document to prove his assertion.

On a reply in the negative, the Hon Frank replied "Well, I have," and thereupon drew from his pocket a large printed sheet, and read therefrom statements concerning the duplicate slides in the elevator spouts, which Mr Oliver claimed clearly proved the truth of his assertions.

After reading, Mr Oliver handed the sheet to Mr Finmore, for the latter's perusal.

Shortly after this the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. The early close was due to the fact that Mr Oliver was billed to speak the following day at Entwistle, and had to catch the ten o'clock train for the West.

Discovered True Remedy For Systematic Catarrh

A bad case of Catarrh is not an easy thing to treat, and a remedy that makes good, deserves great credit. Catarrhoseon, certainly fixed up Chas. I. Webb, who writes from Woodstock: "For a number of years I was troubled with systematic Catarrh. Nothing helped me, until I used Catarrhoseon. It cured me. To build up my system, I used Catarrhoseon. This combination can't be beaten. They made me well. Your case may also be bad, but Catarrhoseon will do for you what it did for Mr. Webb. Two months treatment $1.00, small size 50c. "Independent of what?" she asked. "Why, independent of—of everything. Nothing more to worry about and plenty laid in for old age. Ain't that worth a sacrifice?"

"John," she said, turning and raising her eyes to his face. "Answer me a straight question. What was the happiest time in your life? Wasn't it when we lived in the one-roomed shed shanty, with scarcely a cent to bless ourselves? We worked hard then, too, but we had time for long walks together across the prairie—time to sit in the dusk by the water and plan our lives together. We have done well; we have land, money, machinery, money. But have we the happiness we knew when we had none of these? On the contrary, are you not worried morning, noon and night over your work and your property? Don't you complain about the kind of help the farmers have to hire now—adays, and the wages they have to pay? And if you get more land won't all your troubles be increased in proportion? John, sit down and think this thing over. We don't need more property; what we need is a chance to enjoy the property we already have. The one thing we haven't got—the one thing it seems we can't get, is time. Time to think, time to read, time for walks on the prairie, time for sunsets and skies, and—and kindness, and all the things that make life real. We have the chance to choose now between life and land; won't you think it all over again and let us see that which is really worth while?"

"Now I know where Beulah got her nonsense," he retorted. "All this talk about real life is very fine, but you don't get much life, real or any other kind, unless you have the cash to pay down for it. You can't buy beefsteaks with long walks over the prairie, nor clothe yourself and family with sunsets. For my part I want some real success. We've done pretty well here, as you say, but it's only a beginning to what we can do. If we set about it, and don't wait until the cheap land is all gone, I don't see why you should go back on me at this time of day. We've started together for a long while, and I kinda figured I could count on you."

"So you can, and I don't," she said, "the very last, for anything that is for your own good, but when you set your foot on the prairie, you know how much trouble and hardship and won't add one iota to your happiness, I think it is my duty to persuade you if I can. We're drifting apart lately; why not let us both go back to the beginning and start over again, and by kindness and fairness, and liberality, and—sympathy, try to recover something of what we have lost?"

"I have always thought I had been liberal enough," he said. "Didn't I build you a good house and buy furniture for it, and do I stint you in what you spend, either on the table or your coat? More than that, I didn't I put the title to the homestead in your name? And ain't I ready to do the 'When that's done I'll send you the title'?"

"I never thought of such a thing," she protested. "And yet shouldn't I claim too much credit for putting the homestead quarter in my name. You know when we bought the place, and the land you were none too sure how things would come out, and you thought I might be a little precaution to have the old farm stand in your wife's name."

"That's all the thanks I get," he said bitterly. "Well, I'll take the new one in my own name, but I'll keep the same. And you don't want to share in it if you won't have to. But for the present it's your duty to stay here and run things till we get back."

"What are you going to do after you get your new farm? You can't work two farms a thousand miles apart, can you?"

"Oh, I guess that won't worry us long. The Americans are comin' in now with lots of good money. I was figurin' up that this place was a good concern, ought to bring about forty thousand dollars, and I'll bet I could sell it inside of a week."

"Sell it?" she exclaimed. "You don't mean that you intend to sell the farm?"

"Why not? If somebody else wants it worse'n we do, and has the money to pay for it, why shouldn't I sell it? The years stood in her eyes as she answered: "In all these years while we have been building up this home I've never once thought of it as a thing to sell. It was too near for that—a part of ourselves, of our very life. It seemed more like—like one of the children, than a mere possession. And now you want to sell it just as you might sell a load of wheat or a fat steer. Is this place—the one thing where you have grown old and grey—nothing to you? Have you no sentiment that will save it from the highest bidder?"

"Sentiment is a poor affair in business," he answered. "Property was made to sell; money was made to be used. The successful man is the one who has his price for everything, and knows how to get it. As I grow old and grey on this farm, why, that's a grudge I have against it, though I don't think of it as such. I don't feel very old. And if I get my price, why shouldn't I sell?"

"Very well," she answered. "I've nothing more to say. Sell it if you must, but remember one thing—I won't be here to see it go into the hands of strangers. She straightened herself up, and there was a fire in her eyes that reminded him of the day when she had elected to share with him the hardships of the wilderness, and in spite of himself some of his old pride in her returned. "I leave to-morrow for a visit, and I may be gone some time. You reminded me of your liberality a few minutes ago; prove it now by writing me a cheque for my expenses. Remember I will expect to travel like the wife of a prosperous farmer, a man whose holdings are worth forty thousand dollars cash."

"So that's your decision, is it? You set me at defiance; you try to wreck my plans by your own stubbornness. You break up my family place by piece, until all I have left is Allan. Thank God, the boy, at least, is sound. Well, you shall have your cheque, and I'll make it a big one that it may carry you the farther."

Even in the teeth of his bitterness the mention of Allan's name strained the mother's heart beyond her power of resistance, and she turned with outstretched arms towards her husband. For a moment he wavered, the flame of love, still smouldering in his breast, leaping up at the sight of her. But his sense of duty, and the breath of her response. But it was for a moment only. Weakness would have meant surrender, but surrender was the one thing of which Harris was incapable. He laid out his course with a clear conscience; he was sincerely working for the greatest good to his family, and if his wife was determined to stand by her own light it was his duty to pursue the course in defiance of her. So he checked the impulse to take her in his arms, and walked stolidly to his desk in the parlour.

He returned shortly and placed a cheque in her hands. She looked at it through misty eyes, and read that it was for two hundred dollars. It represented a two-hundredth part of their joint earnings, and yet, he thought he was dealing liberally with her; he half expected, in fact, that his magnanimity would break her down where his firmness had failed.

But she only whispered a faint "Thank you," and slowly folded the paper in her fingers. He waited for a minute, suspecting that she was overdone, but as she said nothing more he at length turned and left the house, saying gruffly as he went out, "When that's done I'll send you the title."

It was now ten at night, and almost dark, but Harris' footsteps instinctively turned down the road towards Riles'. Riles' reputation in the community was that of a hard-working, money-grubbing farmer, with a big body, and a little shrivelled soul. Indeed the latter had not entirely dried up into ashes. A few years ago Harris had held his neighbor in rather low regard, but of late he had been more and more impressed with Riles' ability to make his farm pay, which was as great as or greater than his own, and what he had once thought to be hardness and lack of humanity he now recognized as simply the capacity to take a common-sense, business view of conditions.

At the gate he met Allan, returning from spending a social hour with the Grant boys.

"Where going, Dad?" the younger man demanded.

"Oh, I thought I'd take a walk over Riles'. There's a lot o' things 't' talk about."

"What's the matter, Dad?" The strained composure of his father's voice had not escaped him.

"Nothing." "I might've well tell you now; you'll know it in a little while anyway."

"Your mother is goin' away—on a visit."

"Like Beulah's visit, I suppose. So it's come to this! I've seen it for some time, Dad, and you must've seen it too. But you're not really goin' to let her go? Come back to the house with me—surely you two can get together on this thing, if you try."

"I have tried," said Harris, "and it's no use. She's got those notions like Beulah's, and that kind o' thing. There's no use talkin' with her; reason don't count for anything. I gave her a good pocketful o' money, and told her to write for me when she needed it. She'll get over her notions pretty soon when she gets among strangers. Go in and have a talk with her, boy; there's no use you bein' at odds with her, too. As for me, I can't suppose you know best; I answered, but it seems—hang it, it's against all reason that you two—that this should happen."

"Of course it is. That's what I said a minute ago. But reason don't count just now. But you have your talk with her, and give her any help you can if she wants 't' get away at once."

Allan found his mother in her room, packing a trunk and gently weeping into it. He laid his hand upon her and presently he heard her work worn frame resting in his strong arms.

"You're not going to leave us, mother, are you?" he said. "You wouldn't do that?"

"Not if it could be helped, Allan. But there is no help. Your father has set his heart on more land, and more work, and giving up this home, and I might as well go first as last. More and more he is giving his love to work instead of to his family. I bear him no ill-will—nothing, nothing but love, if he could only come out of this trance of his and see things in their true light. But as time goes on he gets only deeper in. Perhaps when I am away for a while he'll come to himself. That's our only hope."

Appetite Good, Gained 20 lbs. Could Not Feel Better

From a nervous wreck this man was restored to health, strength and happiness.

He tells his own story in this letter.

Mr. Ralph A. Roberts,

Lovena, Sask., writes:

"In 1917 I had lost all appetite, failed 25 pounds in weight, became very nervous and shaky and in fact given up all hope of recovery. For some time I had suffered from constipation, which kept getting worse, until I was fast becoming a total wreck. Doctors and their drugs were sending me to my grave at the age of 39."

"Then I read about people being restored by Dr. Chase's Medicines and after three months' use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills, I found that my bowels were restored to normal movement each day and the constipation was no more. I had a good appetite, had gained 20 pounds and could not feel better. I shall always be grateful for these benefits."

Railway Board Will Defer Decision On Grain Freight Rates

Winnipeg.—No decision will be rendered in the application for permission to allow the Canadian Pacific Railway Company the right to enter the Drumheller coal field over the line of the Canadian National Railways, until a public hearing has been held at Ottawa, it was announced by the board of railway commissioners.

Declaring that the basic industry of Western Canada—agriculture—was faced with absolute prostration; that farmers were leaving the country for the cities; and that grain traffic of the railways showed absolutely disastrous returns ranging from 31 per cent. to 457 per cent., H. J. Stymington, K.C., representing the Manitoba and Saskatchewan Governments and the United Grain Growers, Limited, asked the board of railway commissioners to make drastic and material reductions in the grain freight rates in western territories.

At the conclusion the board announced decision would be withheld pending a further hearing to be held shortly in Ottawa.

Trouble In Montenegro

Natives Rebel to Secure Independence From Serbia

London.—An insurrection has broken in Montenegro for the purpose of securing Montenegrin independence from Serbia, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Rome which connects the insurrection with the Albanian situation.

A Montenegrin battalion, says the message, has seized the highly important strategic height of Mount Lovcen.

Vast forest fires, alleged to have been started by the Serbs, are raging in the vicinity of Podgoritz.

The advance of Jugo-Slav troops into Albania has been arrested by heavy counter-attacks on the part of the Albanians, according to a Central News dispatch from Rome.

New Shippers to Trail Smelter

Nelson, B.C.—Six new shippers, all from the Slokan, sent one to the Trail smelter during the first week in November. The week was also notable for having one of the heaviest tonnage of the year, 11,297 tons of ore and concentrates being received. The total receipts for the year to date at Trail stand at 318,598 tons.

Selling Out Racing Stable

Winnipeg.—D. J. McDonald, well-known race horse owner of this city, is going out of the racing game and is selling his entire stable. Phil Patch 2:05 1/2, one of the leading pacers in Canada, losing only four races this season, is among the horses to be sold.

HALIFAX EXPLOSION WRECKED HER NERVES

The reader will, no doubt, remember when a few years ago there was a collision in the Halifax, N.S., Harbor and one of the munition ships was blown up, causing great loss of life and laying a large portion of the city in ruins, and causing a great deal of suffering and distress among the inhabitants.

Mrs. Winfield Dill, now of Windsor, N.S., was living in Halifax at that time and went through this trying experience and the shock wrecked her nerves. She writes as follows:—"I was living in Halifax at the time of the explosion, and it wrecked my nerves so that I could not do my housework. I would take such nervous spells I would be under the doctor's care."

I saw Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills advertised, so I took two boxes, and they helped me so much I took six more, and now I am completely relieved. I can recommend them to anyone suffering from heart and nerve trouble."

To all those who suffer from nervous shock we would recommend our

Lloyd George May Yet Attend Conference

Washington.—Mr. Lloyd George, in a personal message delivered at the state department by Ambassador Geddes, expressed regret at his inability to attend the opening session of the conference and declared that nothing but the intensely delicate state of the Irish negotiations and matters relating to unemployment legislation in parliament precluded his attendance. He stated that he hoped to be present before the conference reached the deciding stage of its momentous work.

Fire Destroys Ontario Homes

Only Two Members of Family at Kearney Escape

North Bay, Ont.—Five persons dead and one child badly burned, was the total reached in the casualties of a fire which destroyed three houses at Kearney, Ont.

The dead are: Mrs. Fred Wheeler, her baby girl, Doris, aged three months; Doris, aged about six; and Sophie, 17, who died from burns. Another child, Mildred, is in a critical condition.

The only members of the family to escape were William, aged 23, and Freddie, aged nine, who jumped from a window at the rear of the house. William made a brave attempt to rescue his mother from a front room, but she failed to answer to his calls. She was dead.

The tragedy occurred during the absence of Mr. Wheeler, who had left for North Bay, a distance of about 25 miles, on an early train. He was informed of the fate of his family by a telegram which was handed to him at the station here and sobbing while he sought the nearest telephone. The message information available as yet does not account for the origin of the fire.

Increase in Manitoba Population

1921 Census Shows Province Is Growing Rapidly

Ottawa.—The result of the 1921 census shows that the population of the province of Manitoba increased from 461,190 in 1911 to 613,069, an increase of 32.2 per cent. The population of Winnipeg increased from 136,925 in 1911 to 178,361 in 1921, an increase of 42.29 per cent. The city of St. Boniface increased from 7,483 in 1911 to 12,816 in 1921, an increase of 5,333, or 71.29 per cent. A recent bulletin from the census department gave St. Boniface a population of 12,816. This, it was explained, was due to a typographical error.

The city of Brandon increased from 12,839 in 1911 to 15,359 in 1921, an increase of 19.99 per cent. Portage La Prairie increased from 5,892 in 1911 to 6,718 in 1921, an increase of 14.00 per cent.

Britain Will Pay Interest to U.S.

Arrangement Has Been Made to Pay $50,000,000 Yearly

London.—An arrangement has been made to begin paying the interest on the debt owned by Great Britain to the United States at the rate of $50,000,000 yearly, it was announced in the House of Commons by Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the exchequer. Sir Robert made this announcement in the course of a statement on the budget prospects. He added with emphasis:

"I hope this remark about the debt we owe the United States will not be made the occasion for any discussion of the interrelated indebtedness. It should not conduce to the friendliness of the feeling between the United States and ourselves to discuss that matter at all present."

Japan Facing Deficit

Situation Will Make The Strictest Economy Necessary

Tokyo.—Japan faces a deficit of 30,000,000 yen for the present fiscal year, the cabinet was told by Baron Takahashi, minister of finance. He added that current revenues indicated the figure might be even greater.

Commenting on his statement, the Yomiuri Shimbun says: "The situation renders strict economy in framing the new budget absolutely necessary. The finance department thus will have to resort to the broadest policy of retrenchment in examining the draft estimates presented by each government department."

Returns From Perilous Journey

Small Motor Boat Made Journey to Siberian Coast

Vancouver.—The little motor ship, Casco, captained by O. L. Lee, under charter to the Hudson's Bay Company, has returned from an adventurous journey to the North Siberian coast. The Casco left here early in June and visited a number of ports in the Behring and Siberian Seas. At Petropavlovsk, while repairing gas tanks on a launch alongside, two of the Casco's crew were killed in an explosion. They were G. A. Ginas and J. O. Overhill, engineers, Sydney Elvy, of Vancouver, sustained severe burns when he tried to rescue Ginas at the risk of his life.

Auto Runs Into Water

Four Men Have Narrow Escape Through Driver's Error

Prince Rupert, B.C.—Four men narrowly escaped drowning when a closed automobile in which they were riding plunged over a wharf here and sank in the harbor. The men were trying out a new car, and the driver threw it into "high" when he meant to apply the brakes. They had to fight their way out of the closed car while under water.

Report Anti-Bolshevik Revolt

London.—Cecil Harcourt, under-secretary for foreign affairs, replying to a question in the House of Commons, stated the government had received a report that an anti-Bolshevik revolution had broken out in the southern part of Russia. He said no information had been received regarding a report that General Petlura, Ukrainian leader, was engineering the revolution from Rumania.

World Is Settling Down To Work, Says Lloyd George

London.—Mr. Lloyd George, speaking at the Lord Mayor's banquet, declared that there was a better prospect of Great Britain's proposals to Ireland being heeded today and Ireland accepting the invitation to enter the British commonwealth as an equal than for years, but that the conference was still in a critical stage. Beyond this he carefully refrained from divulging the results or the possibilities of the conferences which are now being held with the Irish representatives.

In his opening remarks the Prime Minister alluded to the economic troubles afflicting the world, such as the Napoleonic wars. He expressed the conviction that the force of the cyclone was already spent, and followed with a recital of numerous symptoms indicating that a revival was coming, particularly the fact that "in every land the slackness that seemed to overcome labor is passing away."

"The world is settling down to work," said Mr. Lloyd George, "and it is work alone that will fill the depleted tills which will enable purchases to come to the markets. The blue sky is beginning to emerge. The Washington conference, summoned by President Harding, is like a rainbow in the sky, for, without the assurance of peace, restoration of business is impossible."

"This conference comes none too soon. So far the war has not had the effect which every sane man anticipated from it, in arresting the growth of armaments. Man is the most unteachable of all animals. If you inflict punishment upon any other animal he quickly learns the lesson. But take the late war; it was the most terrible destruction in the history of the world. That lesson was scoured deep into the flesh of the world, and yet no sooner are we out of it than the nations spend their substance in devising and amassing fresh engines for war; fresh subjects spring up everywhere to justify war. You might imagine that the one purpose and glory of national organization was human slaughter."

Great Britain Objects to French Priority

Agreement Regarding Reparations Injurious to British Interests

Washington.—Objections have been made by the British government to the Loucheur-Rathenau agreement under which Germany would pay a considerable part of reparations in kind, that is in building materials and machinery, for the reconstruction of the northern departments of France.

The protest, which has been forwarded to Premier Briand by cable from Paris, repeats that the agreement gives France a priority in payment over other allies and is thus injurious to British interests.

Comment among members of the French delegation to the armament conference is that it was really upon the suggestion of British statesmen that the French government authorized M. Loucheur to negotiate with M. Rathenau.

The London point of view was that Germany could never pay more than a percentage of reparations in cash and that France ought to take products in part payment.

Shorn of Splendor

Lord Mayor's Show in London Is Curtailed With a View to Economy

London.—The historic procession of the Lord Mayor of London was shorn of much of its customary splendor with a view to economy in the face of prevailing distress. The usual banquets in connection with the election of new mayors throughout the country were abandoned in many places for the same reason.

U.S. Loan Declined

Victoria Can Raise Funds in London When Required

London.—A Melbourne dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company reports W. M. McPherson, treasurer of Victoria, as announcing that he had declined "a tempting offer of a United States loan to Victoria." The declaration, he said, was because of the fact that he had completed negotiations in London for a loan to be available when the government here desired to raise funds through this means.

A monthly commercial letter issued by a leading financial corporation says:

The extent of unemployment, the number of business failures and the inadequacy of the return from agricultural enterprises are not nearly as pronounced in Canada as in other countries.

Among the factors disturbing the business of the world now are the unemployment which prevails in Great Britain and the U.S., and the extravagant government expenditures reported from many countries, notably Australia, in spite of continued business depression.

These indicate that a return to stable conditions is still some distance away.

Conditions in Canada are undoubtedly favorable as compared with those prevailing elsewhere; and, serious as are the problems confronting her people, it does not appear that their solution is beset with difficulties as grave as those confronting other countries.

Four horses belonging to the Knight Watson Ranching company of Lethbridge, brought from the Brooke ranch to the Kirkcaldy ranch, 30 miles south of Lethbridge, suddenly disappear. It now transpires that they were seized with homesickness, for they have just turned up at the old home ranch Brooke.

The horses covered over 200 miles and swam the Little Bow river, averaging 30 miles a day.

We have made arrangements with the E. H. Heath Co. Limited who publish the CANADIAN POWER FARMER whereby we are able to offer that farm magazine together with our own weekly at the one price for both papers.

The CANADIAN POWER FARMER is Western Canada's biggest farm monthly. It is now in its twentieth year which means that it is thoroughly established throughout the West. Its editor has just completed a trip of several months over Western Canada in a motor car for the purpose of studying the mechanical needs of the farmers. He visited the farmers, lived with them and worked with them. The results of his trip will appear during the next twelve months.

This offer may be withdrawn at any time. Without doubt your intention is to renew for this weekly, then why not take advantage now. Your subscription to this weekly together with a year's subscription to THE CANADIAN POWER FARMER for the same price as this weekly alone. This is where you make $1.50 on a bushel of wheat.

BENJAMIN H. KAUFFMAN,
Reading, Pa.

"There's no doubt in my mind that Tanlac saved my wife's life," was the positive statement of Benjamin H. Kauffman, 565 Hingham St., Reading, Pa., popular clothing salesman for the well-known firm of Croll & Keck:

"I was almost desperate from worrying over her condition, as she had suffered so long without getting relief and I can hardly believe my own eyes now when I see the change in her. Why, she doesn't show her age by twenty years and declares she never remembers feeling better in her life. Her health was falling steadily for a year as a result of catarrh of the stomach, and I have never seen any body suffer as much from indigestion and nervousness as she did.

"After a five weeks' course of Tanlac she was like another person, and I'm firmly convinced that years have been added to her life. It makes me shudder now when I think what the result might have been if she hadn't taken Tanlac in time."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists and general merchants everywhere.

Russians Executed for Theft

Nineteen Men Shot For Stealing From Government Stores

Nineteen men have been shot and 40 men and women sentenced to prison terms after conviction before a Moscow court martial for thefts of diamonds, platinum and old silver and jewelry from the government stores. These stocks were taken over by the Soviet from shops and individuals at the beginning of the Bolshevik regime. Chief Inspector of the state control commissariat, M. Avenikyan, who has been executed, was convicted of stealing 50 million rubles worth of gems and precious metals.

YOUNG WOMEN AVOID PAIN

This One Tells How She Was Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Regina, Sask.—"For two years I suffered from periodic pains and nausea so I was unable to do my work. My mother had me take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am much better and able to go about all the time which I could not do before. I recommend Vegetable Compound to my friends if I know they suffer the same way, and you may publish my letter if it will help any one, as I hope it will."—Miss Z. G. Blackwell, 2678 Cedar Place, Regina, Sask.

If every girl who suffers as Miss Blackwell did, or from irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging down pains, inflammation or ulceration would only give this famous root and herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

For special advice women are asked to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of forty years experience is at your service.

Seal Herd Increasing

Valuable Fur-Bearing Animals More Plentiful on the Pacific Coast

After having been reduced in numbers from 2,500,000 to less than 125,000 through unrestricted slaughter in the past, the great seal herd of the Northern Pacific has under the adequate protection afforded them by the government, again increased, until today it is estimated that there are at least 600,000 of the valuable mammals between the coasts of Washington and the key shores off Alaska.

The Indians, who alone have been permitted to hunt the seals, under restrictions which compelled them not to shoot them but only to spear them, expect to capture about 2,000 seals this year. The money value of the skins taken since the closed season for sealing schooners was declared in 1917 is said to be about $600,000.

Queer City in Ireland

The most unique city in the three kingdoms is Clogher, situated in the south of Tyrone, Ireland, an episcopal city, consisting of a single street with houses only on the one side. There is a saying in the north—"All on one side, like Clogher." The other side of the street is occupied by the wall and overhanging trees of the Macartney's demesne, which gives the place a very picturesque appearance. Further, this street has a cathedral, and episcopal palace without a resident bishop, and a deanery without a dean!

PILES

Mr. WILFRED ROY, 42, Legit Avenue, London writes: "On active service with the R.F.C. I contracted piles through sleeping on damp ground. Treatment by the M.C. brought no relief and various 'pile remedies' I tried proved equally hopeless. Shortly after my discharge from the service a friend strongly advised me to get Zam-Buk. One box of the balm brought such benefit that I determined to continue the treatment. In a few weeks Zam-Buk caused the piles to completely disappear. All other sufferers should know of this wonderful herbal healer."

Use ZAM-BUK for all your skin troubles.

Rose-Colored Crepe Brightens Navy Tricotine

By Marie Belmont

This attractive dress is an admirable one for the matron in need of a pretty model for afternoon wear. It is made of navy blue tricotine enlivened with trimmings of a rose-colored crepe. The latter is used for the loose under-sleeves as well as the narrow panels that flank the front of the dress. Bands of the crepe also make effective trimming about the frock. Should the practical-minded woman consider that the rose crepe is too delicate, she might substitute a contrasting shade of blue or one of the reds that are so much to the fore this season.

Local Representative

Tuesday's Meeting.

Ducholke's Hall was well filled Tuesday night, when D. M. Kennedy, the Progressive candidate, made his appeal to the electors of Stony Plain District.

Moody Washburn was in the chair, and with him on the platform were the Candidate, and Mr. Wm. Bristow, representing the Liberal Party.

Mr. Kennedy is from the North country; is a well-to-do successful farmer, and looks the part.

Mr. Kennedy condemned a number of things which had been done by each of the great political parties while in power; notably the duplication of transcontinental lines of railway, in supporting which the producer in the West suffers greatly, both from excessive freight rates and meeting the deficit of a hundred million dollars annually.

Mr. Kennedy is in favor of the establishment of a Board similar to the Wheat Board, recently defunct, which would seek to stabilize the price of farmer's products by "keeping its fingers on the markets of the world."

Mr. Kennedy affirmed his belief that agriculture was the basic industry of this country, and stated his readiness to help any movement whereby the agriculturist could have every tax on his implements removed.

Mr. Bristow's thirty-minute speech was chockful of references to Canadian political history; the National Policy; tariff for revenue; Protection doctrine; the need of the two transcontinental railways and the object for which they were built; the era of prosperity which always strike Canada following the accession of the Liberal Party to power at the Federal Capital; the great work which the Laurier Government did in revising the tariff, by raising the tax on such luxuries as diamonds and silks, and lowering the tax on the necessities of the poor. He also touched on the able administration Hon. Frank Oliver gave as Minister of the Interior, giving every aid to pioneer farmers in the North, and throwing open for settlement the odd sections in every township, which previously had been reserved for the railways. Bill is some hum-dinger when he gets agoin', and he sure had the goods with him Tuesday evening.

Stony Plain and District

IT PAYS TO PAY CASH.

Frank Sims of Keep Hills, was a business visitor to Stony on Saturday.

It is understood that a meeting of Inga Councilors is called for the 25th.

Mr. A. Dickon, Tomahawk, was in town on Saturday.

The remains of Mrs. Zelpah Brummet, wife of L. M. Brummet, were brought from Edmonton last Thursday and interred in a local cemetery.

On Tuesday next the big sale takes place at the Government Farm, when a bunch of the stock will be cleaned up. Two auctioneers, one from Calgary and one from Lacombe, have been engaged and a big attendance of those interested in purebred stock is expected. A car of pedigreed sheep has arrived from Vermilion, and will be put up, on Tuesday.

It has just leaked out that two tenderers for the Government Farm's quarter-section east of the Fifth each bid $7200. As these were the high bids, each was given seven days to raise his "ante." One raised it to an acre, and the other $5 an acre and won.

A very enjoyable dance took place at Garden Valley School on Friday night, when a large number of dancers took part.

Comet School Trustees, Messrs. Thos. Graden, Ph. Kulak, Ben Leader, with Mr. Maud McKindlay as Secretary, held its regular meeting Monday evening.

"Woof" Seaman was in town Tuesday, getting an axe sharpened. "Woof" predicts a hard winter ahead, as the brush is much tougher this fall than in former seasons.

Edmonton prices on dressed poultry: Chickens 12c, geese 14c, turkey 18c.

Hon. Frank Oliver is making a campaign tour of the north country this week.

Mr. John O'Donnell, of South Spruce Grove, had his son from Edmonton visiting with him for a few days.

The dance music at the Spruce Grove affair Friday night was supplied by an Edmonton orchestra, and attracted a good crowd.

Mrs. G. Groat, of Spruce Grove, has her brother, Mr. Nelson Nichol, of Fort Saskatchewan, paying her a visit.
